RED WINE

Il Solatio is a small vineyard planted exclusively with SANGIOVESE, surrounded by the woods of Albola at around 600 m above sea level. It owes its name to its particular exposure to sunlight. Its soil, rich in marly limestone and clayey schist, the steepness of the slope and the unique microclimate enable the grapes to express the terroir to the full. It is a wine of extraordinary elegance and finesse, produced in limited quantities and only in the finest vintages.
